

CONTINGENT EXPENSES—STATE DEPARTMENT.

LETTER

FROM

THE SECRETARY OF STATE,

TRANSMITTING

Statements of expenditures from the contingent funds of his office and the Patent Office.

DECEMBER 8, 1836.

Read, and referred to the Committee on Expenditures of the State Department.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
Washington, December 7, 1836.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit to you, to be laid before the House of Representatives, in compliance with the second section of the act making appropriations for the civil and diplomatic expenses of Government for the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, passed the 9th of May, 1836, statements of the expenditures during the present year, to the 30th of November, from the following funds, viz:

For incidental and contingent expenses of the Department of State, including the expense of publishing and distributing the laws;

For contingent expenses of the Northeast Executive Building, including fuel, labor, oil, and repairs;

For the contingent expenses of foreign intercourse; and for the expenses of all the missions abroad, so far as the expenditures have been paid at this department; together with a statement received from the Fifth Auditor, embracing the expenditures incurred at the different legations of the United States, for which accounts have been received and adjusted at his office.

I transmit, also, a statement from the Commissioner of Patents, of the expenditures previous to the 4th day of July last, the date of the act for the reorganization of the Patent Office, from the fund for the contingent expenses of that office; to which he has added a statement of the expenditures from the patent fund from that date to the 1st of December, inclusive. The latter fund not being considered as subject to the control of this department, statements of its expenditure will not, hereafter, under the present law, be made by it.

I have the honor to be, sir,

Your obedient servant,

JOHN FORSYTH.

HON. JAMES K. POLK,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

STATEMENT of expenditures from the fund for incidental and contingent expenses of the Department of State, including the expense of publishing and distributing the laws, from 1st of January to 30th November, 1836.
